FGC is proud to welcome John Quiñones in celebration of our 115th year! An ABC News correspondent, TV journalist, and author, Mr. Quiñones' message will focus on the important role we all can play in someone's life when we open our hearts to help those who may be struggling - particularly with a non- visible condition like mental health. Best known for the "What Would You Do" series, Mr. Quiñones will remind us of the power each of us has to help and to heal.
